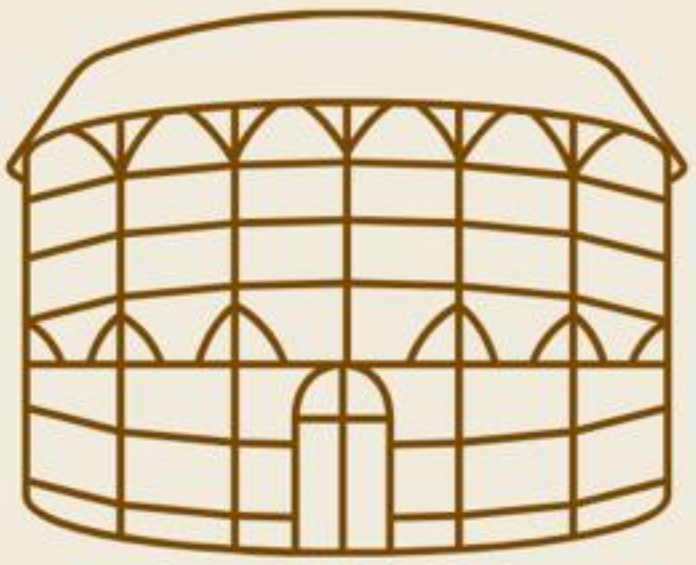
Shakespeare Academy 2027



Shakespeare and the Globe

April 22nd-25th 2027, Weimar

What is the Shakespeare Academy?

The Shakespeare Academy is an English-language student workshop organised by the German Shakespeare Association. It aims to introduce students of all levels to Shakespeare and the afterlife of his plays across different media, as well as to sharpen the expertise of those already in the know. At the heart of the programme each year are two intense workshop days in Weimar or Bochum, followed by a joint attendance of the Shakespearetage.

What does the Academy do?

Each year, we pick a different Shakespeare play as our focus text to consider various aspects of the chosen conference topic. In line with the overarching theme, the participants are invited to work in groups to explore the play's early modern context, selected adaptations, as well as possible ways of performing it on stage.

Who can apply?

Any bachelor's, Lehramt, master's, or PhD student is welcome. Previous knowledge on early modern theatre and Shakespeare is not required!

Application Deadline: January 15th, 2027

This Year's Play: Henry V.

We will be using the Arden Shakespeare Third Series edition, edited by T. W. Craik
